Shipping and Delivery

Order Processing and Shipping Time:

At Ingelt Board, we understand the importance of timely delivery. Once you place an order, our team begins the processing within 24 hours. The estimated shipping time varies based on your location and the shipping method chosen during checkout. Please refer to the product page or your order confirmation email for specific delivery timelines.

Shipping Cost:

We strive to provide affordable shipping options to our customers. Shipping costs are calculated based on the weight and dimensions of the items in your order, as well as the destination. During the checkout process, you will see the shipping cost before finalizing your purchase.

International Shipping Process:

Ingelt Board offers international shipping to serve customers worldwide. For international orders, please allow for additional shipping time due to customs clearance and other international logistics processes. Import duties, taxes, and customs fees may apply, and customers are responsible for these charges. Please check with your local customs office for more information.

Order Tracking:

Once your order is shipped, we will provide you with a tracking number to keep you informed about your package's journey. You can track your order directly on our website or through the designated courier's website.

Shipping Partners:

We work with reliable shipping partners to ensure smooth and secure delivery of your orders. Our partners are known for their efficiency and commitment to delivering your products in excellent condition.

Shipping Restrictions:

While we do our best to deliver to as many locations as possible, some regions may have shipping restrictions due to logistical challenges or legal limitations. If you are unable to proceed with the order due to shipping restrictions, please contact our customer support team for assistance.

Note: Shipping times and costs may be subject to change based on factors beyond our control, such as weather conditions, natural disasters, or global events. We will always strive to keep you informed about any such changes.

For any shipping-related inquiries or concerns, feel free to reach out to our customer support team. Your satisfaction is our priority, and we are here to assist you throughout your shopping experience.

Thank you for choosing Ingelt Board, and we look forward to delivering your order promptly and efficiently!
